Weathering the Storm: Knowing Your Employment Rights During and After COVID-19

With the mandatory closure of child care centres, many employees are not aware of their legal entitlements and financial options that may be available to assist them during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Webinar: Weathering the Storm: Knowing Your Employment Rights During and After COVID-19

This webinar will discuss the following (and more):

- Whether centres have the legal right to temporarily lay you off
- Does your employer have the right to reduce your pay?
- Can you refuse to go to work if you fear contracting COVID-19?
- How to apply for the Canada Emergency Response Benefit (CERB)
- What is the difference between CERB and EI?
- Can my employer force me to take vacation?

Applicable Audiences (but not limited to):

- Not-For-Profit Agency Employees
- EarlyON Child & Family Centre Employees
- Commercial/Private Child Care Educators/Employees
- Not-For-Profit Child Care Educators/Employees
- Before and After School Program Educators/ Employees

To access the webinar, Click Here

After viewing the webinar, if you have additional questions please visit: https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/YLBYNGT

Please note: As the COVID-19 situation evolves, so may the laws and policies governing us. Additionally, funding and supports may continue to change as well. Please refer back to a legal professional and or your governing bodies/sources of information for accurate and timely updates and information.